Oregon Wolf Depredation Tax Credit Application
Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife
Use this form to apply for Oregon Wolf Depredation Tax Credit

INSTRUCTIONS: You Must be an Oregon Taxpayer to Apply

General Information:
• Tax credit conditions as defined in Chapter 65, Oregon Laws 2012.
• Livestock as defined in ORS 610.150.
• This Tax Credit Application can be used for multiple animal requests. However, the information in Section 2 is required for each individual animal.
• The credit is equal to the current market value of the livestock killed by a wolf.
• Current Market values may be verified by experts in livestock sales.
• The total amount of tax credits for all taxpayers is limited to $37,500 per year. Once reached no further claims may be granted.

• A finding by a department or Peace Officer that wolf depredation was the probable cause of loss must include evidence which supports that finding.
• Credit shall be reduced by any amount taxpayer has already received as compensation for the livestock, including compensation pursuant to ORS 610.150.
• Evidence supporting the livestock were probably killed by wolves must be submitted with Tax Credit Application (if ODFW conducted the investigation and made a determination that information will already be on file and need not be resubmitted).
