The Alvord/Kueny Access Area is a cooperative program between private landowners and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife’s Access and Habitat Program to allow public hunting access on private lands and increase access to public land. The Alvord/Kueny Access Area north of Fields, OR provides public hunting opportunities for deer, pronghorn, bighorn sheep, predators, quail, chukar, and ground squirrels. All Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife Regulations and Seasons apply.

Access Allowed:
Year-Round

Area Regulations
• No ATVs on or off road
• Motorized vehicles only on roads mapped and posted as open access roads
• No Camping or night-time use of private land
• No Fires, be careful with cigarettes
• No Littering, pick up any trash
• Report any unlawful activities
• Respect landowners rights and needs
• Leave all gates as you found them

Hunters must check in at the Alvord Hot Springs or call (541) 589-2282 to receive a combination to the gates on the Alvord Ranch portion of the Access area. No permission is required to hunt on the Kueny Ranch portion of the Access Area. You are responsible for knowing property boundaries. Do Not Trespass on adjacent private lands. The Alvord Access Area is adjacent to Bureau of Land Management Wilderness Areas and Wilderness Study Areas. You are responsible for knowing and following the regulations for these areas.

NO HUNTING ON THE EAST SIDE OF EAST STEENS CO. RD
NO HUNTING WITHIN 100 YARDS OF EAST STEENS CO. RD
Hunting on private lands is a privilege, not a right. Private land hunting opportunities will remain in the future only if the property and rights of private landowners are respected.