The Troy Ranches Access Area is a cooperative program between a private landowner and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife Access and Habitat Program to maintain public hunting access on private lands and increase access to public land. The Troy Ranches Access Area southeast of Baker City, OR provides public hunting opportunities for deer, elk, pronghorn, predators, chukar, hungarian partridge, forest grouse, and quail. All Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife Regulations and Seasons apply.

Hunting on private lands is a privilege, not a right. Private land hunting opportunities will remain in the future only if the property and rights of private landowners are respected! Abuse it and you will lose it!

Access Allowed:
Aug. 1 - Jan. 31

Area Regulations:
- No motorized vehicles on Access Area
- No camping or night-time use of private land
- No fires, be careful with cigarettes
- Respect landowners rights and needs
- Leave all gates as you found them
- No littering, pick up any trash
- Report unlawful activities
