Before the
Oregon Fish and Wildlife Commission

DELEGATION ORDER

Pursuant to ORS 183.405, each state agency is required to review all administrative rules it has adopted within five years after the initial adoption. Under ORS 496.112(3), the Commission has the authority to delegate its powers and duties to the Director of the Department of Fish and Wildlife, and the Commission hereby delegates and assigns to the Director to authority to conduct the review of administrative rules adopted by the Commission as required by ORS 183.405, and to report the results of those reviews to the Commission.
