

OREGON DEPARTMENT of FISH and WILDLIFE

PUBLIC at LARGE and FISHING/FISH CONSERVATION REPRESENTATIVE CANDIDATES

January 10, 2014

Eric Andersen, Corvallis, Regional Monitoring Coordinator, South Santiam, North Santiam and Calapooia Watershed Councils

- MS in Water Resources from Oregon State University
- Over 18 years of experience with natural resource management and restoration
- Has some fish screen experience through work with the Santiam Water Control District
- Grew up fishing

Endorsements: Eric Hartstein, Personal Reference
Jason Dunham, Professor, Oregon State University
Cindy Glick, Personal Reference

Monique Chrisman, Otis, Truck Driver

- Has volunteered for ODFW including free fishing weekend events
- Has volunteered for the Long Tom Watershed doing field work and fish trapping
- Avid angler

Endorsements: Robert Fagin, Personal Reference
Brian Barley, Personal Reference
Steve Singleton, Pastor

Douglas Markle, Professor Emeritus, Oregon State University

- Involved in Oregon fish conservation since 1985
- Has completed fish screen entrainment research involving Klamath sucker species
- Extensive work with many listed and state sensitive species in Oregon
- Member of many review and assessment teams including working with the public on water quantity issues in over allocated basins

Endorsements: Dan Edge, Former Fish and Wildlife Commission Chair, Department Head of Fisheries and Wildlife Department, Oregon State University

Les Perkins, Parkdale, Business Development Director, Farmers Conservation Alliance

- Develops fish screening and passage projects for the Farmers Conservation Alliance.
- Lead the development and implementation of screening projects in five states in the northwest.
- Has been a Hood River County Commissioner for 12 years.
- Raised on a small farm.

Endorsements: David Meriwether, Hood River County Administrator
Chuck Thomsen, Farmer and Senator
Sean Welch, Bonneville Power Administration