Oregon's Fish and Wildlife Commission will attend a retreat on Friday, Jan. 10 from 9 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Members of the public may view a livestream of the retreat in the classroom at ODFW Headquarters, 4034 Fairview Industrial Drive SE, Salem. Members of the public can also view a livestream of the retreat via the agency's YouTube channel or on the Commission page).

Commissioners will be attending the retreat at the Oregon Outdoor Education Center in West Salem. Retreat topics include Commission roles and responsibilities and the processes that support a successful statewide commission. No fish and wildlife policy decisions will be considered at the meeting.

During the retreat, Commissioners will meet in an Executive Session pursuant to ORS 192.660 (2)(f) to consider information or records that are exempt by law from public inspection. Executive sessions are closed to the public so this portion of the retreat will not be livestreamed. Members of the media can attend the Executive Session but may not report on proceedings. Media wishing to attend should contact the Director's office at (503) 947-6044 no later than 24 hours before the meeting.
