Oregon State Action

In state action Oregon approved the following rule change:

- Effective 12:01 AM Wednesday October 31, 2012, the emergency salmon and steelhead angling closure in Youngs Bay, Youngs River, and the Klaskanine River (North and South Fork) will be rescinded. Angling regulations will revert back to permanent rules.
- Catch limits and other restrictions in the 2012 Oregon Sport Fishing Regulations pamphlet remain in effect the entire year.
