Supplemental Information

North Willamette Wildlife District Internship North Willamette Watershed District Sauvie Island or Clackamas

Working Duties:

Coordinate the Mourning Dove capture and banding project (35%) o Capture planning, logistics, and implementation o Contact landowners to acquire access for trapping o Place and monitor bait sites o Record, summarize, and manage data o Write end of season summary report

Assist with capture and radio collaring of Roosevelt Elk (15%) o Deployment, monitoring, and maintenance of elk corral traps in the Mt. Hood National Forest o Assist staff with planning, logistics, and implementation of capture o Maintain bait sites-as needed o Recover radio collars from elk mortalities o Maintain data files

Assist with Forest Grouse Wing Collection Program (15%) o Contact and recruit volunteers to assist with sample collection o Set up data files, data entry and project reports o Map collection barrel locations using GIS o Coordinate with biologists from The Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde o Conduct public outreach o Maintain and construct collection barrels before deployment

Assist with conducting surveys of wildlife populations (10%) o Band-tailed Pigeon surveys o Lower Columbia River goose capture and banding o Deployment of bat monitoring equipment o Assist with duck banding o Assist with camera deployment and monitoring for wolves o Assist with large carnivore mortality sampling

Assist with implementation of district programs (5%) o Create GIS shapefile of Wildlife Habitat Conservation Management Program registered properties
Supplemental Information

- Data organization and quality control
- Falconry mews inspections and capture permits
- Wildlife rehabilitation program-facility inspections, transport of animals
- Cervid facility and wildlife holding permit facility inspections

Assist in addressing wildlife conflicts (5%)
- Contact the public who report wildlife conflicts
- Enter complaints into damage database
- Accompany staff in the field on damage inspections

Assist with miscellaneous duties as necessary (5%)
- Give presentations to sporting groups or landowner groups
- Maintenance of wildlife equipment and vehicles
- Data management
- Collect biological samples
- Assist with wildlife habitat improvement projects